

My Dear Madam

I really feel at a loss how to thank you for your very great kindness & attention.

The beautiful little presents you have sent for the dear little boy are most gratefully acknowledged by Eliza & myself - ~~for which we~~ ~~return you our warmest thanks~~ ^{in return} and ^{we} beg you to accept our warmest thanks; most sincerely uniting with you in the hope that he may emulate the virtues of his Grandfather

~~I hope~~ I flatter myself that at some future period he may be able to thank you in person for this proof of your affection, and to profit by that conversation which has so often afforded me both delight & improvement -

With the greatest affection

Your most affectionate friend

E. S. R.

July 18. 1822

M^{rs} Powell -